Mt. Pleasant news

By ODELL CHAMBERS

We have approached the New Year and have made our New Year resolutions. Let number one be, get closer to God. Let us share the blessing with others that we have received from him by knowing him as our personal Saviour.

Christmas holidays were wonderful in this area. Our pastor Rev. W. L. Napier bought an inspiring sermon on the fourth Sunday. We had a nice congregation out to receive the message. We were sorry to hear of the loss of his uncle's home. Mr. Charlie Napier near six mile bridge. One of his sons died as a result of the fire. Our sympathy goes out to our paster and Mr. Napier of their love ones. Mr. Napier was a faithful member of the Appomattox Assembly.

Christmas dinner for Odell Chambers and family was held at the home of her sons, Milton and Frances Chambers at Vera. All the children were present except Harry who lives in Hawaii.

Last Sunday was very inciement weather but there was a service. Rev. Napier's message was great. The theme "If You Can Take It; You Can Make It." Pulpit guests were Rev. Miller and Rev. Flood. Since the weather was too icy for Rev. Miller to attend church over in Buckingham.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Shaw and children spent the holidays with her mother, Mrs. Odell Chambers. They returned home on Sunday.

On the sick list are Miss Hattie Jones and Dimple Walker. We are praying for the sick where ever they may be. Hoping everyone a pleasant week.

St. Luke news

The third Sunday services in December at the St. Luke Church were impressive, inspiring, and was filled with mixed emotions. Pastor J. E. McLaughlin was doing his last service for the church because of health reasons. He will be missed by his congregation. All interested persons gave a love gift for him in a separate envelope and this brought out pleasing returns. Some gave gifts of items which were very useful.

The minister gave a wonderful message dealing with creation and how man breaks God's law. Then Christ was born to get man back in favor with God.

The Sr. Choir gave music suited to the occasion. The usual conference with the little ones was enjoyed by the group. The offering for the day was very good.

Dec. 19 the St. Luke church folks came together and filled and sent out around 90 Christmas bags of fruit and other items to the shut-in, elderly and lonely and windowed people. Following that the Christmas tree and program was enjoyed. Nice gifts were received by many.

It was very noticable that this was the first white Christmas that has been enjoyed for quite a long time.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Canada and children were dinner guest of his parents for Christmas day from Richmond. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Canada, also their daughter, Remora Canada of Baltimore, Md., Mrs. Shirley Canada and two little daughters and Mrs. Louise Canada were dinner guest in the same home of her son, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Canada visited her mother and sister of Naruna. They also visited their grandmother, Mrs. Edith Jones of Lynchburg.

Rev. Albert E. Davis, P.O. Box 134, Farmville, VA 23901 will be the preacher for the St. Luke Church Jan. 3, 1982 at 11 a.m. Come and enjoy the service with us. He'll also be in charge on the 3rd Sunday which is Jan. 17, 1982 at 11 a.m.

Mrs. Ocil Elliott is recovering at her home after having treatment in the hospital in Charlottesville.

Mrs. Jessie Mae Callaham lost her home and all of her possessions by fire Sunday before Christmas. She will appreciate anything that anyone feels free to give. She lives in Naruna, is a member of Evergreen Baptist Church. Rev. J.C. Cabell is pastor.

Mrs. Louise Canada, who was born Jan. 2, 1902, will get a birthday, Jan. 2, 1982. Eighty years of age, she loves life and is happy to have lived to see this age.

Here's wishing all a prosperous new year. Thanks to the Times-Virginian for the regular news each week.
